“Dying to Be Beautiful” Mystery Series Set in The Hamptons One Book, Two NEW Exciting Mysteries: “Fake Beauty” and “Fat Fee”

M. Glenda Rosen, a former resident of the East End, brings Books 3 and 4 of her “Dying To Be Beautiful” Mystery Series set in The Hamptons together in one book, which has just been introduced. The book is now available at Amazon.com, Barnes&Noble.com and numerous independent bookstores.

In the series, Private Investigator Jenna Preston and her long-time friend, Detective Troy Johnson, work together to solve puzzling murders that occur in the playground of the rich and famous. Throughout the series, solving crimes leads Jenna to philosophical perspectives, danger and romance (thanks to her Irish setter, Watson).

“Dying To Be Beautiful” is a fascinating look into the multi-million dollar world of beauty and the things people will do to attain it. [The author is] a fun and engaging storyteller, who clearly knows her way around a plot twist or two. [The protagonist,] Jenna, manages to be both tough and glamorous in her role as a private investigator.”

— New York Publishing Agent

In addition to being the author of the "Dying To Be Beautiful" Mystery Series, M. Glenda Rosen (Marcia G. Rosen) has also written "The Woman's Business Therapist: Eliminate the MindBlocks and RoadBlocks to Success" and the award-winning "My Memoir Workbook." She has recently developed a new "Marketing Workbook for Authors."

For more than 15 years, Rosen has helped numerous authors develop and market their books, and presented writing programs on “Encouraging and Supporting the Writer Within You!” She is the founder and owner of a successful marketing and public relations agency for 25 years. The author currently resides in Carmel, California.

While living on the East End for 15 years, Rosen was on the original board of the Westhampton Performing Arts Center and was chosen the 2005 Woman of the Year by the East End Women's Network. “Without a Head - a quirky female private investigator novel that will keep readers hooked with its charm, wit and suspense.”

— CITY BOOK REVIEW

“The book, and the characters, including a beautiful setter dog named Watson (smart, protective, and necessary to the plot) brings humor and humanity to the whole. I loved it.”
